COMPETITION LAW
DECEMBER 9-11, 2015
INDIAN INSTITUTE OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS
IMT MANESAR, GURGAON

Sponsored by Delegation of the European Union to India
under the Action titled

“Capacity Building Initiative in the Competition Area under Trade Development Program in India”

About Course:

Within last couple of decades Competition Law has spread at a rapid rate and there are now over one hundred jurisdictions with established competition laws. This rapid growth should correspond with the development of Competition Law Jurisprudence and its knowledge among our academia. Beholding the interdisciplinary nature of Competition Law, this course is specifically customised and designed for the members of academia. Keeping in view this interdisciplinary approach of discipline, course will be taught by several experts of Law and Economics possessing experience of being a regulator, practitioner, advisors and academician. Primarily the course will involve lectures covering following content:

- ◆ Rationale of Competition Law and Economic Regulation
- ◆ Defining Market-Legal and Economic Criteria
- ◆ Market Power-Legal and Economic Analysis
- ◆ Abuse of Dominant Power-Exploitative and Exclusionary Practices
- ◆ Anti-Competitive Agreement-Legal and Economic Analysis
- ◆ Regulation of Combinations-Legal and Economic Analysis
- ◆ Competition Law & IPR-Interface and Conflict
- ◆ Enforcement of Competition-Regulatory Structure and Processes

Objective:

Course aims to deepen and broaden your knowledge of Competition Law as an academic subject and assists your academic development by enhancing teaching.
